

Memorial Garden

You and your pet have enjoyed special times together and no doubt your pet was part of your family, as well as a great friend. The loss of a pet affects us all at some time in our lives and this is why we have created a memorial garden for people to remember their wonderful animals and share their loss with others in peaceful surroundings.

Our memorial garden was blessed by Reverend Brian Lay of St John's Church, Cattedown, Plymouth.

Not only does the Memorial Garden allow you to remember your pet, the donation you give for your plot will directly help us to care for those animals being cared for at Gables who are patiently waiting for a loving new home.

We are able to bury your pet's ashes in the memorial garden if they are accompanied by a certificate of cremation from a licensed crematorium.

There are a choice of two plaques available for your pet's memorial plot for £150.00

(price includes the plot, paw print slab and burial of the ashes).

Your pet's ashes will be buried under a pawprint slab.

You just need to choose if you would like a paddestone or stake.

Plaque 1 - Paddestone

Plaque 2 - Stake

If you would like to supply your own plaque you can do this. The cost of a plot and burial of the ashes is £80.00.
